Presentation

The Master's Degree in Management of Social Economy Organizations at Lusófona University (Porto University Centre) offers specialised and interdisciplinary training, designed to respond to the urgent need for professionalisation and the contemporary challenges of the social sector. The course combines knowledge of Management, Social Work, Law, Public Policy and Ethics, preparing professionals to lead with innovation and responsibility. With a strong focus on financial sustainability and social impact, the course combines a solid theoretical foundation with a practical approach geared towards solving real problems. Students are trained to design efficient strategies, manage multidisciplinary teams and implement projects that generate social, economic and cultural value.
