Presentation

The Portuguese as a Foreign Language Course - Level A2 is designed for international students who already have a basic knowledge of Portuguese and wish to consolidate and expand their communication skills. The course develops students?? ability to understand and use the language in common everyday, academic, and social situations, promoting greater autonomy in oral and written communication. Aligned with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), it is the natural continuation of Level A1 and prepares students to advance to intermediate levels and to earn CAPLE certification.
