1. ABOUT US

Universidade Lusófona is the largest private university in Portugal. The entity that is legally responsible for managing and developing the university is COFAC - Cooperativa de Formação e Animação Cultural, a not-for-profit educational entity, located in Lisbon, Portugal.

The name of the university comes from the term "Lusophony" - the peoples and nations that share the Portuguese language and culture -, which is the central landmark of its institutional mission.

The University has two campus, in Lisbon and Porto, which are located at the heart of the two main Portuguese cities.

In its core institutional mission Universidade Lusófona advocates tolerance, inclusion, and equal opportunities as its central values, presently gathering a students' body of more than 16,900 students and 1.671 teaching staff, articulated in the 15 Faculties, Schools and Institutes.
