

Luís Cláudio Ribeiro

Luís Cláudio Ribeiro is a university lecturer. He was Director of the Communication Sciences Department, and of the study cycle in Sound Technologies of Lusófona University. He does research in the field of the sound media and culture.

His latest books and papers address the identification and characterization of the changes brought about by the sound mediators in society. He was Principal Investigator of the projects Lisbon Sound Map and Aural Experience, Territory, and Community, both funded by FCT.

Alongside his academic activity, he is a writer, with published works of fiction and poetry.

ORCID

0000-0001-6512-1506

Página de Docente

Access